The Gay Rights National Lobby

Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL) announced that Tanyan Corman will become the organization's national Field Director. She has been active in California gay and lesbian political efforts for several years and has worked on the GRNL staff since early 1982. As Field Director, Corman will be responsible for GRNL field programs.

The Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL), the nation's only gay organization lobbying on the national level for lesbian and gay civil rights, selected openly gay Minnesota State Senator Allan Spear to be Co-Chair of the Board of Directors.

Senator Spear was first elected to the Minnesota Senate in 1972. In December, 1974, he "came out" as an openly gay man and elected official. After announcing he was gay, Spear received much support in Minnesota, including a supportive telephone call from Minnesota Governor Wendell Anderson.

Spear was re-elected to the Senate in 1976 with 69% of the vote and was re-elected again in 1980 and 1982. The 1982 election, due to redistricting, put Spear in an entirely new district, yet he was still successful. Currently Senator Spear is Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Letter To The Editor

To The Editor:

I have watched the PATLAR GAZETTE grow into the nationwide paper that it is for over a year now. In Iowa, I appreciate the attempt the paper is making at reaching out to persons interested in our community.

From reading the PATLAR GAZETTE, it is easier to view the Gay Community as a part of the entire society that we all live in. Other publications tend to put too much emphasis on the gay side of life and on their local issues.

I feel like an equal in society from reading the PATLAR GAZETTE!

AIDS Updates

By Sandy Pomerantz, M.D.

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) have published their latest body count--as of September ?, 1983, 2,259 people in the United States and Puerto Rico have been diagnosed has having AIDS. Of these people, 941 have died. Three per cent of cases were diagnosed before 1981, ten per cent in 1981, thirty-nine percent in 1982, and forty-eight per cent (1,087 people) in 1983 alone. Four hundred and seventy are people in California, with 11% of all cases in San Francisco and 7% in Los Angeles--leaving approximately 100 people with AIDS outside of SF and LA but still inside California.

It makes me ill looking at the numbers knowing that we still do not know what causes AIDS, exactly how it is transmitted, or what will safely restore normal immune function. What we do know is based on disease models and epidemiologic surveys and medical history.

The AIDS agent is hypothesized to be transmitted sexually or less commonly through contaminated needles or blood. AIDS is not known to be transmitted through food, water, air, or environmental surfaces.

Only one per cent of the total number of people with AIDS do not belong to one of the following categories: (1) Sexually active gay or bisexual men who have had multiple partners--71% of total, 92% in California. (2) IV drug users present or past--51% of the women who now constitute 7% of the total and 17% of all cases. (3) Natives of Haiti now living in the US--5% of the total. (4) Heterosexual partners of persons with AIDS--1%. (5) Recipients of blood transfusions--1%. (6) Persons with hemophilia or Factor-IX deficiency--1%. (7) Three per cent whose risk factors are still under investigation.

The message is ominous and clear. Behavioral steps need to be taken within those populations of high risk to stop the epidemic. We note that the cholera epidemic, for example, in London in 1832 was stopped by breaking off the handle of the pump of the well which was the source of the epidemic--namely the contaminated water. Yet, it was over 40 years later that the bug that causes cholera was identified, and well over 100 years until effective treatment was established. Need I say anymore about risk reduction and safe sex? For more information, contact your AIDS/KS Foundation. The nationwide AIDS HOTLINE is 1-(800) 342-2437.

Medical researchers have found that nearly 60 percent of gay men in a study conducted in the San Francisco Bay Area are infected by intestinal parasites. Nearly a third, 31.4 percent, are infected with potentially dangerous organisms.

The research suggests that parasitic diseases are spread by promiscuous sexual activity. The diseases proliferate in the lower intestine and frequently result from oral and anal sex among gay men. The diseases can also be ingested from the hands after touching surfaces contaminated by fecal matter.

The 1982 study shows that such infections are common among gay men in general. In the mainstream population, 14.2 percent have intestinal protozoans, about 5 percent of which could be considered dangerous.

INS Cannot Stop Gay Foreigners From Visiting United States

The 9th US Circuit Court of Appeals sitting in San Francisco recently ruled that the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) cannot stop foreigners from visiting the United States simply because they say they are gay.

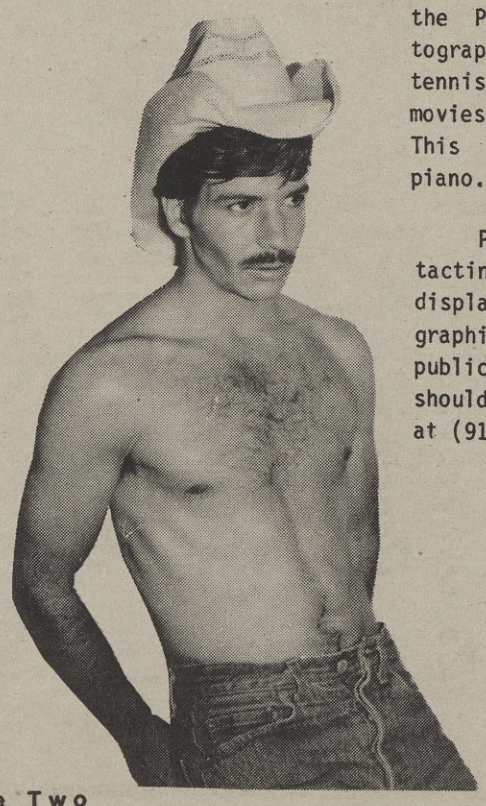

The decision was hailed by the activists as an advance for gay civil rights. However, the issue addressed by the court was whether congress requires gay traits to be certified by medical examination before barring a person from the United States. The ruling of the Court held that such a medical certificate was required and that it was improper for the INS to bar gay persons simply by their admission of being gay.

The Court indicated its belief that Congress intended to exclude gay persons from the United States on the ground of affliction with a psychopathic personality, sexual deviation, or mental defect. The Court noted that it was not within its purview to judge the wisdom of the congressonal decision to exclude gay persons from the country.

There's more than one way to keep warm indoors on Halloween, and this month's cover model, Dan Eviard, does it in style. Dan, who is also the PATLAR GAZETTE'S cover photographer, enjoys writing, playing tennis, hiking, and going to the movies with interesting men. This talented man also plays the piano.

Persons interested in contacting Dan about doing commercial display modeling or about photographing an event for possible publication in the PATLAR GAZETTE should call Publisher Larry Lanham at (916) 452-0769.

GAY PRESS ASSOCIATION

HE TOOK THE CHANCE OF GETTING HEPATITIS B— AND LOST.

NOW THE CONSEQUENCES ARE JUST BEGINNING. CHRONIC ACTIVE HEPATITIS, CIRRHOSIS ... OR DEATH.

You undoubtedly know someone who's had it. The "bad hepatitis" that can keep you in bed for weeks and out of a job for months—that can cause lifelong disability and even death from cirrhosis or cancer of the liver. Where do you get it? From people who have become carriers of the virus. Today, it is estimated that at least 100,000 gay men are carriers of the hepatitis B virus and spread the infection through intimate contact. That's the main reason why more than half of all gay men will sooner or later become infected.

How can you tell who's a carrier? You probably can't. Most carriers seem to be perfectly healthy, and many are themselves unaware that they harbor the virus.

Once you get hepatitis B, there's no specific treatment for it. But now there's something you can do to help protect yourself.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE— CONTACT YOUR DOCTOR OR CLINIC AND ASK ABOUT THE HEPATITIS B VACCINE.

It is highly effective in those who receive all three shots. Do it today because you never know where or when you'll make contact with a carrier.

If you'd like more information about hepatitis B and the vaccine, call The American Liver Foundation at (201) 857-2626.

This message is brought to you as a public service by The American Liver Foundation.

Studies showed that the vaccine protected against infection caused by hepatitis B virus in 85% to 96% of those who received the required three shots.

Hepatitis B virus is an important cause of viral hepatitis, a disease mainly of the liver. Even mild forms of this disease may lead to serious complications and aftereffects, including liver cancer. There is no specific treatment for viral hepatitis.

Vaccination is recommended for persons who have a higher risk of becoming infected with hepatitis B virus because of frequent, close contact with infected people or exposure to body fluids from such people. It will not protect against hepatitis caused by viruses other than hepatitis B virus.

Because of the long incubation period for hepatitis B, it is possible for unrecognized infection to be present at the time the vaccine is given. The vaccine may not prevent hepatitis B in such patients.

In three studies involving 3,350 persons, the overall rate of adverse reactions did not differ significantly in those given vaccine and those given placebo (an inactive substance). As with any vaccine, broad use often reveals rare adverse reactions not observed during clinical trials.

Over 200,000 people are estimated to have received the vaccine since its release, and the vaccine continues to be generally well tolerated. Hepatitis B has a long incubation period, and unrecognized infection may already be present at the time the vaccine is given. Thus, reported cases of hepatitis are to be expected and do not appear to be caused by the vaccine. Reactions such as fever, nausea, vomiting, headache, and local pain have occurred. Joint pain has been reported; rash has been reported rarely. Serious illnesses affecting the nervous system—including Guillain-Barré syndrome—have been reported rarely, but no cause and effect relationship has been established.

FEATURES

Ms. Khabajh (who pronounces her name "cabbage") in her column "Cooking with Hedda" deals with recipes. She would be pleased to receive favorite recipes from her readers--for kitchen testing and possible future publication.

Professor Kett in his column "Faux Pas" specializes in matters of etiquette and propriety as they pertain to the complexities and vicissitudes of the gay community.

Madame Eurus in her column called "Euphemia Eurus" is a generalist who advises about almost all types of problems except those concerning etiquette and/or cooking.

Readers are invited to submit their problems to our advice columnists. Please send your letters to this paper, addressed to the proper columnist.

Horoscopes

By Dr. Pat Larr

Scorpio (Oct 24-Nov 22)--It's your month, so trick and treat to your heart's content. Everyone wants to reach into your bag of goodies looking for a Mr. Goodbar. Give them Good and Plenty.

Sagittarius (Nov 23-Dec 21)--The cosmic logjam breaks and you're suddenly sensitive to the throbbing vibes of someone new. Powers of intuition are heightened. If only you could read bodies as well as you read minds.

Capricorn (Dec 22-Jan 20)--With Mars camping it up in your House of Friends, and Neptune swishing through your House of Partnerships, the social whirl really keeps you spinning. Your heart may be going pitter-pat by All Hallows Eve.

Aquarius (Jan 21-Feb 18)--Some prickly problems come your way in the weeks ahead, but you rise above them. Someone new and stimulating shows you a thing or two. Watch out for Pisces.

Pisces (Feb 19-Mar 20)--Memories light the dim corners of your mind. Try to forget these misty watercolored memories. An encounter with an old love could prove heartbreaking. Take off the rose-colored glasses.

Aries (Mar 21-Apr 19)--An unexpected invitation presents itself. You'll probably wind up hobnobbing with hobgoblins again this Halloween. You'll also enjoy their unmasking.

Taurus (Apr 20-May 20)--That special someone continues to be a pain, you know where. Venus enters the scene mid-month and soothes the troubled waters, but only for a little while. Do you really enjoy doing this to yourself?

Gemini (May 21-Jun 20)--Get a grip on yourself! Say what you mean and mean what you say. Jupiter is in your House of Careers and this could be meaningful to your future. Wear blue.

Cancer (Jun 21-Jul 22)--Home-loving Cancer finds a heavenly home-loving body who ony wants to stay home and love his body. Enjoy.

Leo (Jul 23-Aug 22)--As Mars enters your House of Careers, your motto becomes, "Let's Get Physical." In the bedroom and the boardroom, you're capable of astounding feats. Leo's animal magnetism draws out the best of everything.

Virgo (Aug 23-Sep 22)--Watch out Virgo, you're on a tightrope right now and your Virgo vertigo may cause you to fall, nead over heels, for almost anything or anyone. Remember your standards.

Libra (Sep 23-Oct 23)--As the moon moves on to greener pastures mid-month, you experience a total eclipse of the heart. Don't fall apart. A Taurus horns in on your delemma, and we know how you like a big raging bull.

Cooking With Hedda

By Ms. Hedda Khabajh, M.A.

While warm weather is still with us, let's try one more warm-weather recipe. This is an excellent salad for a light supper or brunch.

Romaine lettuce

1-½ cups sliced celery

2 hardboiled eggs

1 sliced cucumber

1 julienne-sliced raw turnip

½ cup walnuts, chopped (optional)

¼ cup sliced stuffed olives

½ cup french dressing

½ cup mayonnaise

1 tbls minced onion

1 cup marinated artichokes, drained (reserve marinade)

½ marinated mushrooms, drained (reserve marinade)

2 6½ or 7-oz tins of chunk tuna

Line the salad bowl with the lettuce leaves. In another bowl combine the celery, walnuts, stuffed olives, onion, artichokes, mushrooms, and the tuna which has been broken into chunks about the size of a quarter-inch cube. Mix. In a small bowl, put the french dressing, mayonnaise, and two tablespoons each of the two marinades and blend these together. Pour over the mixed vegatables and tuna. Heap in the center of the salad bowl on the lettuce leaves. Cut the eggs in wedges and form an edge for the salad bowl. Inside this, add a ring of cucumber slices. And inside this, a small ring of the turnip strips. You can vary this by pouring the salad-dressing mixture over all of the ingredients, or by mixing the vegetables with the salad dressing and omitting the rings. But the rings do make this salad more attractive. Serve with white wine and french bread.

Faux Pas

By Ed E. Kett

Dear Mr. Kett,

Recently an an old friend from my high school days moved back to town and re-acquainted himself with me. During our high-school days, this gentleman was witty, intelligent, the most popular man on campus, and well on his way to becoming a major success in life, while I more or less stood on the sidelines and basked in his reflected glory. Well, now, after a silence of almost ten years, he has returned to renew our friendship just where it left off. He only recently discovered he is gay and feels that this common bond can be the basis of our renewed friendship. Yet he is also a heavy user of drugs (something I abhor), can rarely carry on a coherent conversation of even the most elementary nature, and has consequently lost his intellignece and wit as well as his looks. He is also a flaming drag queen and an insufferable bore. I could go on and on. I find I have nothing in common with this man any longer, but he insists on forcing his company upon me, basking in my modest success, enjoying my food, my booze, and the more attractive of my gentlemen friends. Is there a polite way of telling this guy to bug off?

Sincerely,

Wilbur

Dear Wilbur,

Polite? Why you would want to be polite to someone who feels no remorse about being rude to you is a very great mystery, and especially someone whose drug-addled mind makes him oblivious to the subtleties of common courtesy. Choose a moment when you're both out of the public eye, and let him have it with both barrels. Those with a fondness for dope are not always swift on the uptake, so tell him how you feel in the plainest language possible. There are three possible results of this action: (1) You may get your message across, in which case you have no further problem; (2) You may come to some sort of understanding in which you both agree to new terms for your friendship; or (3) Your message may go right over the doper's head, in which case you may still find him camped on your doorstep and you may get a strange desire to move to another city.

Ever yours,

Edwards Endicott Kett

DOING AMERICA WITH BOB DAMRON

NEBRASKA

Nebraska is known as the Cornhusker State. It is rich in farmlands, grain production, and livestock; and its best-known native son is Johnny Carson! For all practical purposes, most gay life is centered in its two largest cities, Omaha and Lincoln.

Omaha, with a population of nearly 400,000, has big-city spice with a small-city price! Known as the crossroads of America, it lies on the west bank of the Missouri River, just opposite Council Bluffs, Iowa. Its major gay bars are all downtown. The Hollywood at Harney and 14th gets mostly young male preppies, and serves a Sunday brunch. Look for the green steps off the parking lot on 14th. The Stage Door at 1512 Howard attracts both sexes, has a spectacular light show, a quiet bar with game arcade, and a outdoor beer garden upstairs. The Diamond at 712 S. 16th St. is Omaha's oldest bar, and The Run, around the corner at 1715 Leavenworth is the newest; both get some levi-and-leather guys and can be quite cruisy. The Chesterfield and Swingtime are smaller lesbian clubs. Nebraska bars are open daily until 1 AM, but only operate for 6-11 PM on Sundays.

The Village Inn (after hours), Leavenworth Cafe, and Neon Goose are mixed eating places.

Across the river in Council Bluffs are two popular bookstores, Good Times and Off Broadway Emporium. Man's World Spa, next to Good Times at 16th and B, is the only bath for miles around; but check for early closing hours during the week.

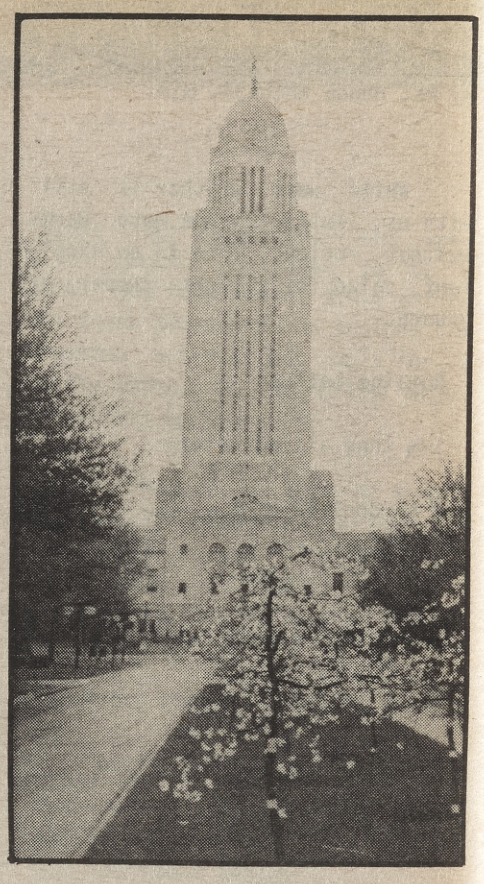

Lincoln, with a population of 170,000, is about an hour's drive southwest of Omaha. It is the state capital, and home for the 25,000 students at the University of Nebraska, whose mighty cornhuskers often dominate the college football scene.

For cruisy late-night munching, it's a Perkins' near the airport.

The Sanctuary at 18th and N is the friendliest cruise bar in town, with a mostly western-and-levi crowd. Soon they expect to open a women's disco, downstairs off N St., called Cherchez La Femme. With a name like that it should be hot! The busiest disco in Lincoln is the Office Lounge at 1705 O St. which gets a mostly younger crowd of both men and women.

About the only other gay bar in the state is Trader Jack's at 1822 Central in Kearney, but you may find some hit-or-miss activity in Bellevue, Grand Island, or Norfolk. If it's been awhile since you've taken a good look at Nebraska, especially Omaha, you may be pleasantly surprised. Lots of things around here are named Ak-Sar-Ben, which is simply Nebraska spelled backwards. But it's not so backwards anymore, and getting better all the time. The cornhusker State is rich in enthusiasm and pride and with its friendly Great Plains lifestyle, it is bound to please and prosper.

The Albuquerque Social Club elected a new board of directors for the 1983-84 year at its recent annual meeting. The club plans to open its back bar soon, when remodeling has been completed.

The Albuquerque Social Club is a non-profit corporation primarily for gay men and women. It operates a bar and social facilities at 4021 Central NE.

* * * * *

A group of persons over 40 is being organized in New Mexico. The organizers believe such a group is needed to meet the interests of those in the lesbian and gay community who are over 40 years of age. However, the group is open to people of all ages who share the needs and interests of older people.

At the initial organizational meeting, approximately 23 men and women turned out to express interest in the group. Interest in a social and support group for older gays and lesbians was indicated by the turnout despite relatively little notice.

The group hopes to provide a forum for meeting other poeple, to reach out to gays still in the closet, and to conduct social events and programs of special interest to its members.

On October 15, a business meeting has been tentatively scheduled at the East Central Branch of the Albuquerque National Bank. For more information, call Bob Pickett at (505) 344-4011, or Dick Miller at (505) 898-2343.

St. Paul

The Minnesota Lesbian/Gay Committee of the International Gay Olympic Association (ML/GC-IGOA) is busy working on the winter games scheduled for 1986.

Its Fine Arts Committee will conduct a contest to determine the logo to be used as the official symbol of the games. All lesbian/gay artists and designers are invited to participate in the competition which will be held this Fall. For details about submitting an entry, write to the ML/GC-IGOA, Logo Contest at the above address. The contest prospectus is now available.

Jackson

The National Association of Gay and Lesbian Democratic Clubs, Mississippi Gay Alliance Chapter meets every other Thursday at 2912 Old Canton Road, in Jackson. The group has reviewed the records of candidates and will support those with good records.

The Lamda Group (Gay Alcoholics Anonymous--Gay Addicts) in Jackson will start holding its meetings at the Unitarian Church.

The Metropolitan Community Church in Jackson meets on Sundays at 2 PM. The MCC of Jackson always welcomes anyone who wishes to worship or just visit.

Oklahoma City

The Official Miss Gay Oklahoma Pageant was recently held at Free Spirit in Oklahoma City and Amy DyShea was crowned Miss Gay Oklahoma 1983. Lyn Alexander was first runner-up, and Dianna Farrall was second runner-up. There were 15 contestants in a fast-moving show.

Albany

The Occupancy Protection Act was recently enacted in Albany (NY), effectively negating a May 9 decision by the New York Court of Appeals that permitted the evictions of unrelated people sharing apartments without the consent of the landlord. Though the Court's decision had been handed down in the case of a woman who lived with her male friend without the landlord's knowledge, the decision was also prejudicial to gay people, who do not have the option of marriage to remedy a violation of the lease.

The legislation, which passed both houses of the legislature overwhelmingly, specifies that leaseholders may share their apartments with their "immediate family" and also with one additional person and that person's dependent children. At least one of the tenants covered by the original lease must remain in the apartment under that lease. If the initial tenants move out, the remaining roommate must renegotiate the lease.

Kansas City

Women in the Kansas City area who want to play flag football this fall should contact K.C. Frogge at (913) 677-1314, or sign up on the inquiry sheet at Beechie's, 1706 West 39th.

Tentatively, games will be played on Sunday afternoons at either Penn Valley or Swope Park.

To form your own team, contact K.C. for a team roster sheet, and it will be mailed to you. Be sure to include a phone number where you can be reached.

The KC/AIDS Project is now located at 2301 Locust and has a new phone listing: (913) 474-8522. The AIDS Project will staff the AIDS information line on a regular schedule: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday from 8:30 AM-4:30 PM and Wednesday from 10 AM-6 PM. People who are interested in helping should contact Ran Adler at the information number.

Washington, DC

The NATIONAL AIDS VIGIL COMMISSION announced that thousands of people are expected to participate in a candlelight vigil on Capitol Hill the evening of October 8, 1983 in Washington, D.C.

The coalition was formed under the aegis of gay and non-gay organizations to focus national attention and public awareness on the AIDS syndrome.

The AIDS Vigil is a single-issue action highlighting discrimination against persons with AIDS, intended to support the critical task of local and national AIDS organizations and to demand increasing crucial necessary federal funding for research of this dread disease.

The Vigil Commission is comprised of congressional, medical, educational, and business groups, unaccustomed to mass demonstrations. They believe that the nation has never faced a health crisis of such magnitude in recent years as that presented by AIDS.

The Whitman-Walker Clinic has scheduled a national AIDS forum on October 8, 1983, 3-5 PM. The theme of the event is: Fighting for Life & Fighting the Disease. The forum will be held in the Departmental Auditorium on Constitution Avenue between 12th Street and 14th Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. The event will be held in conjunction with The National AIDS Vigil.

For more information, call the AIDS information line: (202) 332-AIDS.

Milwaukee

The first North American Men's Music Festival has been scheduled in Milwaukee from October 21-23. Activities for the event will be at the Marc Plaza Hotel in downtown Milwaukee.

The conference has been organized to bring together people who believe that needs are not being met by mass art forms. Billygoat Productions, organizers of the conference, are encouraging anyone interested in any cultural work to attend.

A major focus of the conference will be production, with various workshops devoted to organizing cultural activities.

Organizers hope to encourage the development of a strong national network of alternative production companies.

A concert will be presented in conjunction with the conference on October 22. Registration is $35. For more information and registration forms, write: Conference, Billygoat Productions, PO Box 11725, Milwaukee, WI 53211.

Lincoln

One of the largest bookfairs in the state of Nebraska, and possibly in the Midwest, has been organized because of the scarcity of gay literature in Nebraska bookstores. Over 250 titles totaling more than 5000 volumes and covering virtually every aspect of alternative lifestyles will be represented.

B. Dalton Bookseller will provide the inventory for this event which is planned for the first weekend in November. The hours will be 5 to 8 PM, Friday, Nov. 4; 12 to 8 PM, Saturday, Nov. 5; and 6 to 9 PM, Sunday, Nov. 6. The bookfair will be held at the site of two popular community bars, The Sanctuary/Cherchez La Femme at 200 S. 18th in Lincoln.

The proceeds from this benefit will be donated to a non-profit organization. The venture is strictly a volunteer effort, and concerned and interested individuals are needed to help.

Several gay leaders from five mid-western states convened in Lincoln, Nebraska recently to participate in a gay civil rights regional conference.

The program was sponsored by the Lincoln Coalition and included a presentation by Minnesota State Senator Allen Spear, an openly gay legislator. Spear told the conferees that the gay rights struggle was one which will be won at the state and local levels. He also said that radical gay politics are self-defeating and he urged the groups to work within the existing system and to build grass roots support from the movement's allies, including women, straight liberals, churches, local and regional legislators, and other minority groups.

Other speakers urged gays to present themselves as whole persons because gay rights is not a sexual issue. Father John McNeill, a Jesuit from New York who founded the national Catholic Dignity organization said that gays are not a threat to the family structure but rather are the hope of the family. He indicated that gays know how to love, how to share, and how to be open with their feelings.

Cody

A gay group which is organizing in Wyoming's Big Horn Basin recently hosted a picnic ago which drew men from Cody, Sheridan, and Billings, MT.

An organizational meeting to form a chapter of Yellowstone Lambda Alliance of Billings was held recently in Cody. For more info, write to Frank at PO Box 3135 Cody, WY 82414.

Ft. Collins

The Sagebrush Bar & Restaurant opened recently. It is located at 934 LeMay Street in Fort Collins and offers dancing daily. The large dance floor permits the dancers to gaze at the stars through the skylight windows. The bar is available for groups, organizations, office parties, wedding showers, and receptions. Patrons must be eighteen years of age or older and positive ID must be shown at the door. For more information, call (303) 493-0251.

Little Rock

There are two sources for AIDS testing in Little Rock. If a person thinks he has AIDS and lives in Arkansas, he should have his personal physician refer him to Dr. Richard Jacobs at Arkansas Children's Hospital. (Dr. Jacobs will not see a patient without the referral of another phsycian.) This hospital has the only laboratory in the state with the equipment to perform tests to confirm an abnormality in the immune system.

Another resource is the Market Place Medical Clinic located at 11121 N. Rodney Parham in Little Rock, telephone (501) 224-0794. This clinic offers an AIDS screening test where blood is sent to Roache Bio-Medical Laboratory in North Carolina.

There are AIDS hotlines which have been set up to provide more information on AIDS. These include the Arkansas Crisis Center, (501) 664-8834 in Little Rock, or (800) 482-8886 for the rest of the state.

Clear Lake

We've had some rough winters here in Pomo Country lately. Two years ago, the Winter Wind Gods tried to blow us off the map. Then this past winter, the Gods of the Lake surrounded us and tried to reclaim us as their own.

I'm happy to tell you that the adversities of the past two years have produced a stronger and wiser citizenry. "When the going gets tough, the tough get going" is certainly true at Sunset Point; we're working to improve the grounds, spa, bar & restaurant, and boat docks. The resort business has improved steadily since the flood waters receded in April.

Those interested in fishing should check the local bait & tackle shops for a report on what is biting on what. They tell me some nice bass and catfish are coming in, ten-to-fifteen pounders would you believe.

The rages this year seem to be windsurfing and parasailing. Jet-skis seem to have passed their peak. Sailing and waterskiing and inner-tubing continue to be popular. For persons who feel more like kicking back, the Sunset Point spa area with two hot tubs, approximately 800 square feet of decking, and an 8-foot surrounding fence remains the spot for social gathering. A sauna between the spas will be completed as soon as the Fall chill makes it desirable. The adjoining bunkhouse and showers have also proven popular gathering spots.

October will continue with mostly clear days and can be our nicest month. Our Second Annual Gay Catfish Derby is scheduled this month. Prizes of course!

Activities are virtually unlimited--horseback riding has returned to Lake County after several years absence. Hikers delight in the nearby National Forest or the lakeshores and creekbeds looking for Clear Lake Diamonds or Indian relics. Nearby Cache Creek offers raft trips that delight beginners.

San Francisco

The San Francisco Police Commission approved a 25-minute videotape which will be used to inform police recruits about the Gay Community. San Francisco Police Chief Cornelius Murphy objected to the title of the videotape, "The Promised Land." He said the title's Biblical connotation might offend some local residents, but he stressed he had "no problem" with the content and use of the videotape.

The tape is intended to present the recruits with a non-stereotypical view of Gays. Among those on the videotape are a gay male and lesbian police officer who are shown walking their beat in the Castro District of the city.

San Francisco radio station KUSF recently became an affiliate of the National Gay Nework (NGN).

The San Francisco-based network, with radio affiliates in Los Angeles, Guerneville, Pittsburgh, (PA), Australia, and Europe broadcasts news targeted to lesbians and gay men. KUSF plans to air NGN newscasts each Tuesday.

The addition of KUSF to NGN's list of affiliates is a significant milestone for the network. San Francisco is considered by many as the most liberal city in the country toward alternative lifestyles.

The station also provides a gay news broadcast by telephone. The number is (415) 664-7010 and it receives more than 16,000 calls a month from all over the world.

city's retirement system, making it possible for an employee to designate any person, including a lover, for death and retirement benefits. The legislation, which was introduced by Supervisor Wendy Nelder, was hailed by gay leaders as an important breakthrough for lesbian and gay city employees, and a major precedent for the idea of domestic partnership.

San Jose

We heard that Toyon's was moving and now we know where. Its new location is the old restaurant and bar formerly known as BoBo's and before that as the Rare Steer. Persons who remember either BoBo's or the Rare Steer know what a great location it is.

Mark Salton, the past Emperor V, San Jose, operates the Broadway Restaurant and has prepared a first-class menu.

Kevin and Mark: The best of wishes to you and your opening! If you run this like you did the Toyon's's on Sunnyvale & Saratoga Road you'll have one helluva great Place!

Concord

Diablo Valley Community Center (known locally simply as THE CENTER) is located at 1818 Colfax Street in Concord. At THE CENTER, rap support groups for men and women are provided every Friday night at 8 PM. The rap groups deal with a variety of topics such as: Couples with the seven-year itch; gay medical update; opening another door in one's life; couples of different faiths; and interior decorating.

Special events are also scheduled from time to time. For example, gay crisis-line training classes are now being given. For participation, all that is needed (over and beyond a $35 registration fee) is a sincere desire to help and a willingness to put in some hard work.

For more information about CENTER activities, call (415) 674-0171 or 827-2960. A $1 donation for all activities is requested unless otherwise stated.

London

A Canadian woman, who as a Roman Catholic nun lived in Haiti for 20 years, recently died of AIDS in London. Doctors said the case strengthens the link of AIDS cases to Haiti, since no other risk factor except residence in Haiti was present. AIDS was first identified in Haiti.

The former nun, whose name was not disclosed, moved to London in 1979.

Philadelphia

Graduation exercises for the class of 1983 at Philadelphia's Byton School/Eromin, were held in June.

What makes the event so unique is that the school is in its first year at Eromin House. It is a group home for gay teens run by the Eromin Center, the nation's largest gay/lesbian social-service agency.

The school was organized in 1982 as an alternative to the public schools after gay teen residents of the house had been wrongly classified as socially and emotionally disturbed.

The school is fully accredited and offers a full spectrum liberal-arts program--writing, reading, social studies, life studies, and physical education.

Four students made up the graduating class. Eight other students are currently enrolled at the school.

To contact the school, write the Eromin Center, 1735 Naudain St., Philadelphia, PA 19146, or call (215) 732-3212.

Des Moines

Political attention is beginning to focus on the 1984 presidential election. Iowa is already getting a good share from candidates who are looking to the gay community for support. This is because Iowa is the site for the second state primary.

On September 22-24, Harry Britt, San Francisco Supervisor, visited Des Moines and Iowa City Bars and met local gay political activists. He was also a guest at an AIDS fundraiser in Des Moines.

On September 26, Senator Alan Cranston was featured speaker at a luncheon in Des Moines where he answered questions from the gay community.

On October 8, all of the Democratic candidates are expected to appear to discuss issues with the gay community here and to help organize the Gay Democratic Club, a newly formed statewide organization.

Iowa is clearly a new frontier for politicians who are involving themselves in the gay community!

Cincinnati

The Cincinnati gay community gained national attention recently when Jerry Falwell came to town to talk about AIDS and homosexuality. Falwell dropped hints that AIDS was a plague, that gay people were cursed by God, and that if drastic measures were not taken soon the whole nation might suffer from the disease.

Shortly after hearing of Falwell's intentions to visit, the Greater Cincinnati Gay Coalition formulated plans for a demonstration. Some gay leaders noted that Falwell's comments were not as bad as feared and credit is given to the strong response from the gay community for the tempered remarks.

On a much happier note, if you missed Aunt Rose's 60th birthday celebration, you missed the event of the decade. Yes, it was one real celebration. Marching bands, baton twirlers, cloggers, limousines, live entertainment, food for the gods, even a proclamation from the mayor's office designating Sept. 4, 1983 as Warren Roy Brinson's Day. Bobbette & I would like to thank everyone for helping keep this a big surprise. And surprised Aunt Rose WAS. I didn't think a bunch of queens could keep a secret. But one does live and learn, doesn't one?...The Kay St. Bar is exhibiting a collection of tribal art consisting of carvings from Africa & Oceania. (Where in the world is Oceania?) Anyway, the art is beautiful and will be on display through Oct. 30, so don't miss it. While you are there, stop by the cocktail lounge and say HI to Cliff, Mike, Alan, John, Evon, & Ron, and let them make you one of your favorite drinks. They are a bunch of sweethearts...Congratulations to Paulette Jacobson, owner of Aunt Wiennie's, a new, very informal eatery which just opened to great acclaim at 2330 Stockton Boulevard. Best of luck, Paulette...Now here is what I call a bargain. Thursday Night Blowout for only four bucks. At Scandals, all the well drinks you can drink from 7-11 PM, and right next door at BoJangles, all the draft beer, wine, and sodas from 8 PM-2 AM...Joe, Chuck, & Dooda (Forum), I sure like what you have done to the bar so far. It's looking good, especially the lights. Since disco took over, I'd almost forgotten what it felt like to hold your dancing partner in your arms. Thanks to your DJ for throwing some slow tunes in from time to time. Alright all you slow dancers, get out to the Forum and check it out. I think you, too, will like what you see and hear...It's that time of the year again. The Mercantile anniversary celebration, Sunday, Oct. 2, starting at 3 PM. Food and fun. Come out and celebrate with them. Happy Sixth Anniversary, Mercantile...Power Plant, Stumble Inn, Wreck Room, Broadway Limited, Mercantile Saloon, Kay St., BoJangles, Scandals, Forum, & Steamworks are all celebrating Halloween Oct. 31. Anna Marie's is celebrating theirs Oct. 29. Check with each of these establishments for details...That's about it for now. Please, please, please: Take care of yourselves.

Man-Two-Man

Men in Sacramento who want to meet and socialize with other men in a congenial setting are invited to attend Man Two Man events. Men who have not previously attended a Man to Man activity but who want to see what it is all about are encouraged to show up. Every effort is made to make men who are attending for the first time feel comfortable.

Special events over the summer included camping trips to the mountains and beach and a trip to Sour Grass Campground.

The main feature of Man Two Man is the Wednesday evening social program. A $3 donation is requested to defray operating expenses. The group meets at 2771 24th Street in Sacramento at 7:30 PM. The schedule of upcoming events shown below. For additional information, call (916) 391-9755.

Your Hosts

Bill & Malcolm

Madame Euphemia Eurus

Dear Euphemia,

Who has the biggest equipment--if you know what I mean? At various times I've heard tell that the Danes do. Someone else said that the Blacks do. And still another certain party swears on everything that's holy that the Arabs do. Surely this is something that you would know for sure about. So please set the record straight.

Yours truly,
Houston

Dear Houston,

I know exactly what you mean. But I can't claim that I know for sure about what you ask. However, I have been around the world and will admit that I've encountered many a well-endowed Greek, Turk, Black, Arab, and Mexican. Once upon a time I even connected up with an Eskimo who wasn't about to be awarded anything less than a first prize. I've tossed and turned in many inns with more than a respectable "eleven." But with the lights out, or at least very dim, I couldn't always determine the exact origin, but I really don't think that I've ever had a chance to meet (meat?) a Dane.

If it's largeness I'm in the mood for, I just crotch-watch until something tasty looking catches my attention. I suggest that you do the same because variety is indeed the splice of life.

EE

Dear Euphemia,

I think I want to turn gay. The idea has always appealed to me, but my parents would have a cow, simply have a cow, if they knew. So I have to plan my life around them. And I have a wonderful idea about how to handle things but I need your help. Please don't say "no" because you're the only person I know of who can probably tell me how to become a page in the United States Senate. I figure that I can meet some swell men there who would treat me real good. And I'd be away from my folks for at least a couple of years, so that when I have to return to Houston I'll be 18 and my own boss. So give with the dope and I don't mean smokeables, potables, or inhaleables. I'm depending on you, hon.

Sonny

Dear Sonny,

Yes, apparently there is at least one nice man in Congress who is openly gay. Probably there are others who aren't so open.

Which is more important to you, being a page or being in a position to get laid from time to time by important, well-known men? Being a page in the United States Senate is a great honor, a great responsibility. Getting wined and dined and laid by important, well-known men really doesn't amount to much in the long run. Of course, it's perfectly possible to do both things. But please think carefully about your motivations.

I'd suggest that you write to one of your state's senators in Washington, D.C. for instructions about how to apply for a position as a page. Good luck.
